

CURRICULUM Autumn Term – Year 2

English

Writing: Recount about the summer holiday and half term. Story sequencing, character description, non-chronological report linked to humanities and science. Writing linked to class reader and The Colour Monster.

Reading: Reading with clarity and using appropriate intonation when reading texts. Whole class reader - Ellie and the Cat.

SPAG: Recap sentences needing full stops and capital letters, different sentence types (command/instruction, statement, question, exclamation), word types - verbs and adverbs, nouns and adjectives.

Maths

Number: read and write numbers in figures and words to at least 100, recognise place value of each digit in a 2-digit number represents (TU), compare and order numbers from 0-100 using $<$ $>$ and $=$, position them on a number line, round numbers to the nearest whole ten.

Calculations: that addition and subtraction are inverse operations and the commutative properties of addition calculations, use the inverse to check calculations and calculate the value of an unknown value in a number sentence (e.g. $_ + 23 = 35$), formal (column) addition, formal (column) subtraction. Recognise multiples of 2, 5 and 10, recall and use times tables and related division facts for 2s, 5s, and 10s, calculate number sentences for multiplication and division within the above times tables.

Shape: identify and describe the properties of 2D and 3D shapes, identify lines of symmetry in 2D shapes, sort shapes on the basis of their properties, including everyday objects.

Science

Living things: Simple food chains – MRS NERG, carnivores / omnivores / herbivores, producer / prey / predator.

Sound - Introduction to sound.

Computing

Screentime and screen use – how to be safe when playing online or using console games, which information is not to be shared.

Coding– hour of code.

PSHE

Health and Wellbeing - Setting goals and being physically healthy (food groups and harmful substances, emotional health (The Colour Monster), risk and conflict.

Growing up - Body parts, being unique, changing our behaviour.

Humanities

History – Romans: understanding where the Roman Empire began, finding out what it was like to live in Roman times.

Geography - Weather, reading thermometers, understanding and giving weather reports, weather in the UK vs elsewhere.

RE

Hinduism – Divali, celebration of light over darkness, watch Divali celebrations, significance of different practices during Divali.

Christianity – Jesus' teachings of kindness, acceptance and forgiveness, Jesus as a gift from God, Christmas as a time of celebration of Jesus' birth.

Art

Artist Study - Frida Kahlo, life, challenges, art.

Drawing – The human body,